

Michael F. Easley
Governor

State of North Carolina Office of the Governor

For Release: IMMEDIATE
Date: Jan. 20, 2006

Contact: LaTonya Rogers
Phone: 919/733-5612

GOV. EASLEY REAPPOINTS FOUR AND APPOINTS THREE TO N.C. INTERAGENCY COUNCIL FOR COORDINATING HOMELESS PROGRAMS

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has reappointed Sen. Charlie Dannelly and Rep. Beverly Earle, both of Charlotte, Linda Povlich of Raleigh, Rep. Edith D. Warren of Farmville and has appointed Denise Neunaber and Candace Stowell, both of Raleigh, and Glenn E. Silver of Whitakers to the N.C. Interagency Council for Coordinating Homeless Programs.

Dannelly is a member of the N.C. Senate for District 38. He also serves on the Second Harvest Food Bank of Metrolina Advisory Board, the Committee to Restore and Preserve Third Ward and the Advisory Council on Cancer Coordination and Control. Dannelly received his bachelor's degree in education from Johnson C. Smith University and his master's degree in education from the University of North Carolina (UNC) at Chapel Hill.

Earle is a member of the N.C. House of Representatives for District 101. She is a member of the National Conference of State Legislators Executive Committee, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and the National Council of Negro Women. Earle received her bachelor's degree in social science from N.C. Agricultural and Technical State University.

Povlich works part-time as a senior advisor to the secretary of the N.C. Department of Health and Human Services. She is a member and past chair of the N.C. Commission on Volunteerism and Community Service. Povlich is a graduate of Peace College.

Warren is a member of the N.C. House of Representatives for District 8. She serves on the Farmville Community Arts Council Board of Directors and is a member of the Farmville Chamber of Commerce and Economic Council. Warren received her bachelor's degree in education and her master's degree in education and school administration from East Carolina University.

Neunaber is a project director with the N.C. Coalition to End Homelessness. She is a member of Americorps and volunteers with the Big Brothers Big Sisters Organization and the Western North Carolina AIDS Project. Neunaber received her bachelor's degree in social work and human studies from Warren Wilson College in Asheville.

--more--